

Course Title	BTEC Level 3 Diploma Information and Communication Technology (Practitioners)
Level	Level 3
About the Course	Topics that are studied include Digital Graphics, Specifying and Building PCs, Software Development using Visual Basic, Systems Analysis, Principles of Computer Networks, Client Side Customisation of Web Pages or several others from a wide range of IT skill areas. The BTEC Level 3 Diploma Information and Communication Technology is the most focused IT qualification that is available today. It is very practical in nature and is taught by staff with many years of experience. Students will find it both challenging and rewarding. Students must study 12 units, including a large computer project based on their area of specialization.
Progression Routes	The course prepares you for progression to a Foundation Degree or an Honours Degree in Computing or IT. It is also a stepping stone to employment in the IT industry career options may include software engineering, technical support, systems analysis or network engineering.
Method of Assessment	This course is 100% coursework assessed. There are no externally examined modules.